The session was moderated by J. Abisha , Second MA English, Sree Ayyappa College for Women. Bharathi Manikandan of Third B A English welcomed the gathering . K.S. Chitra , First year MA Department of English introduced the event by explaining the importance of National Youth Day which is celebrated on January 12 every year on the birthday of Swami Vivekananda. Ms. Sree Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of Maths ,Sree Ayyappa College for Women enriched the program with a patriotic song.

Dr. K.V Jayashree, Principal , Sree Ayyappa College for Women in her presidential address, highlighted the power of youth to face unknown challenges at any time . She also focused on the role of youth in socio economic development. She asked the students to unleash the power within themselves and come out to develop and generate livelihood outcomes, which will enable them to lead a meaningful life. She said that as the future of the Youth relies on the youth, they should mould themselves into better human beings.

Seetha Lekshmi, member of Maithreyi Study Circle introduced the guest of honor, Ma .B.Radha Devi, Dakshin Prant Sangatak Vivekananda Kendra Kanyakumari. She in her keynote address deliberated on how youth can set up an example for society through their good deeds. Citing from Bhagavat Gita which teaches the way of life, the message of oneness, divinity within one's own self, she asked the student community to develop themselves to serve their country better. Ma. Radha Deedi asked the students to believe in themselves to achieve success in their life.

The session ended with the vote of thanks by K.P.Sree Lekshmi , Research Scholar , Sree Ayyappa College for Women.
