REPORT OF THE ACTIVITIES FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON NATIONAL NUTRITIONAL MONTH AND FAN DONATION

On celebrating National nutritional month of 2022 on September 13 an awareness programme was organized by NSS Unit No 97 of Sree Ayyappa College for Women in the Government Primary School of Villukuri A. Our volunteers have prepared charts that explain the importance of nutritional diet. They gave the students some knowledge about the national nutritional month and some of the government schemes related to it. The session was interactive and the students felt free to ask questions. Five volunteers had participated in this program and they cleaned the school surroundings also.

The Headmistress of the Govt. Primary School in Villukuri A village (adopted village of NSS Unit No 97) indicated that there was an urgent need for ceiling fans in order to enable students to study during summer months without any difficulty. Dr. Sreya G. Nair considered the request on compassionate grounds, purchased 3 ceiling fans (Rs.7750/-) out of her own funds and donated the same to the school today 13 Aug 2022 in the presence of Dr. K V Jayashree, Principal, SAC, Mrs M.Celine Mary, Headmistress and NSS volunteers. The village community appreciated her for this noble deed.

CELEBRATION OF HINDI DIWAS/FORTNIGHT

Hindi Diwas is celebrated on 14th September every year to commemorate the adoption of Hindi as one of India's official languages. The day is celebrated with great enthusiasm all over the country to promote the language and to create awareness about its importance. In order to celebrate Hindi Diwas, NSS Units in association with Department of Hindi and Nehru Yuva Kendra, Kanyakumari organized intercollegiate elocution and essay writing, to promote the language and to encourage students to participate in the celebrations on 14 September at 10.00 am in the seminar hall.

Elocution and essay writing competitions are an integral part of the Hindi Diwas celebration. These competitions provide a platform for students to showcase their skills and knowledge about the Hindi language. The language has its own charm, which attracts many students to participate in these competitions and to showcase their talent. The topics were, Elocution - अंग्रेजों के खिलाफ भारत के स्वतंत्रता संग्राम में हिन्दी का योगदान। and Essay competition राष्ट्र और पोषण. The participants of these competitions are judged on their skills, knowledge, and creativity. The winners receive awards, prizes, and recognition for their outstanding performances. This inspires others to learn and improve their Hindi language skills. 50 participants from various colleges were present.

REPORT FOR THE ACTIVITIES FOR THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY:

ONE DAY PREVENTIVE HEALTH CARE CAMP

Everyone needs to stay healthy, particularly women who are prone to many peculiar and frequently attacking ailments. Young Women irrespective of the fact that they have access to updated information on health issues and how to prevent the same choose to remain ignorant. Keeping this critical point in view, the NSS Units 96, 97 and 162 of Sree Ayyappa College for Women, Chunkankadai, Kanyakumari District in collaboration with Sree Mookambika Institute of Medical Sciences, Kulasekharam, Kanyakumari District organised One Day Preventive Health Care Camp in the College Seminar Hall on 10th February 2023.

A total No. Of 300 Students and NSS volunteers attended the camp. Dr. M.Venkatesh and Dr.R. Aalathi supervised the entire diagnostic procedures. It was alarming to note that more than 60% of them were found to be anaemic due to intake of non-nutritious food. Similarly students who required further check-ups and medical attention were given proper advice by the medical team.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

The NSS Units 96, 97, 162 and Red Ribbon Club of Sree Ayyappa College for Women, Chunkankadai in collaboration with Sree Mookambika Institute of Medical Sciences, Kulasekharam, Kanyakumari District organized a Blood Donation Camp on 20th February 2023 at 10.00am in Seminar Hall. Dr.Sithara,MD,Associate Professor of the Hospital in her Special Address highlighted that one unit of Blood can save a precious life. She also advised that more students should come forward to donate blood frequently as there has been an increased demand for Blood in Kanyakumari District as patients from adjoining State of Kerala also come to the Hospital for specialized medical treatment. 50 units of blood were donated.

AWARENESS CAMPAIGN ON DRUG AND ALCOHOL DEPENDENCE

The NSS Units of Sree Ayyappa College for Women, Chunkankadai has been organising various programmes aimed at raising the awareness levels of both NSS volunteers and general students on Drug Abuse. Veliappan, Programme Coordinator, NSS also appreciated her for her efforts.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the NSS organized a seminar titled "Embrace Equity" to highlight the importance of gender equality and inclusivity in society. The seminar was held on 10 March in the auditorium and 200 volunteers were benefitted. The speaker Dr. T.Anitha, Assistant Professor of History, SAC at the seminar discussed the ongoing struggle for women's rights and the need for collective action to address the issue of gender inequality. She emphasized the fact that gender discrimination is still prevalent in various spheres of life, and there is a dire need for policy changes and institutional reforms to ensure gender equity and also spoke about the importance of education in empowering women, highlighting the need for educating girls and women in rural areas.

She stressed the importance of involving men in the conversation to change societal norms and attitudes towards women, which can help create a more equal society. In conclusion, the seminar was a thought-provoking and insightful event that highlighted the importance of gender equity in society. It emphasized the need for collective action to create an inclusive and equal world for everyone. The NSS deserves appreciation for organizing such an impactful event to celebrate International Women's Day.
